

Soft Spot

JMSN

Every time that you open up
You know that I can't get close enough
See, everything gets so damn mixed up
And I can't get nothin' to add up
See, all I want is a little trust, yeah yeah
You know that it's more than enough, yeah

And I don't even know what to think anymore, can you show me?
Show me
And I can't even tell anymore if you're coming or going
Going, yeah

Believin' every single word you say
And then I go around and find out you lied to me
I guess it's all a part of love and the price you pay
I guess it's all a part of lovin' you baby

Guess I got a soft spot for you
I got a soft spot
A soft spot
Guess I got a soft spot
A soft spot

You always say you wanna connect
But you never wanna give to get
Maybe I just get too obsessed, yeah yeah
I just can't settle for less no

And I don't even know what to think anymore, can you show me?
Show me
And I can't even tell anymore if you're coming or going
Going, yeah

Believin' every single word you say
And then I go around and find out you lied to me
I guess it's all a part of love and the price you pay
I guess it's all a part of lovin' you baby

Guess I got a soft spot for you
Guess I got a soft spot
A soft spot
Guess I got a soft spot
A soft spot, yeah

(Believin' every single word you say)
Guess I got a soft spot
A soft spot, yeah
(Believin' every single word you say)
Guess I got a soft spot
A soft spot

Yeah, you keep me comin' back to you
'Til there's nothin' else that's left to lose (nothin' left for me to lose)
Yeah, I don't know what you've got to prove (what you got)
When you keep me comin' back to you

And I don't even know what to think anymore, can you show me?

And I can't even tell anymore if you're coming or going

And I don't even know what to think anymore, can you show me?
(Believin' every single word you say) Show me
And I can't even tell anymore if you're coming or going
(Believin' every single word you say) Going, yeah

Guess I got a soft spot
A soft spot, yeah
(Believin' every single word you say)
Guess I got a soft spot
A soft spot
