

PUSH IT

Jnr Choi

Why would I stay with her?
Why would I play with her
Why would I stay here just wasting my time baby
Look at the state of her
Why would I stay here just waiting around
If I'm not gonna mate with her?
She comes with too many issues
I've got way too much on my plate for her
It could be simple now baby
No need for wrinkle now baby
I like ya dimple uh baby
We can't rekindle now
Wait for the time to tell baby
Act like I'm single now baby
Sad that we broke apart baby
I have to dome

Gave you a chance and you blew it
Been around the wrong influence
Trusted my gut yeah I knew, crazy that you beat me to it
Plenty more fish in the sea
Lucky I live near the beach
It could've just been you and me
I guess it wasn't meant to be
Now you on phone, talking bout running it back
I'm never running back
Why the fuck we
We we even having this chat
Why we even having this chat
Why the hell we
I don't wanna do another lap
I don't wanna do another lap
No no
Baby help yourself and get the fuck off my line

Push it push it
She's gonna
Push it push it
She keep calling
Push it push it
Stop calling
Push it push it
Every morning
Push it push it
You're gonna
Push it push it
If you keep calling
Push it push it
You're gonna
Can't say I no gave you warning

Today, was gon be a wonderful day
But then you kept calling my line
Saying I'm on your mind and you wanted me back
You don't want no problem with me
Way too late for that baby
The shit that you did was so foul

Better act right if you're fucking with me

You know I'm rawer than a steak
I really gave you a plate
I really gave you a place in my heart you just wanna take
Take, take, take, take
Take, take, take, take, take, take, take, take, take, take Aaaaah

Push it push it
She's gonna
Push it push it
She keep calling
Push it push it
Stop calling
Push it push it
Every morning
Push it push it
You're gonna
Push it push it
If you keep calling
Push it push it
You're gonna
