

Nightfall

Joakim Lundell

Coming up tonight
See you move your body in the fading lights
At the break of night
Dancing up on tables, we be wilding out

When the night is calling
I wanna feel that something
Rushing through my body
I won't stop, I'm sorry
Now the ground is shaking
Memories in the making
Give into that feeling
Like it's my only holiday

Feeling so alive
Can we keep on going in this state of mind?
Tell me what you like
Can we lose control into the deep of time?

When the night is calling
I wanna feel that something
Rushing through my body
I won't stop, I'm sorry
Now the ground is shaking
Memories in the making
Give into that feeling
Like it's my only holiday
