

Cry

Joan Armatrading

I find myself
In times of trouble
And all I can do is cry

I find that all
The cares surround me
And all I can do
Is cry

Nothing you can do
Is ever gonna hurt like this
Nothing you can say
Is ever gonna hurt like this

I can't forget the one
Said I can't forget the one
No I can't forget the one
I saw you holding

As your beautiful mouth kissed those pouting mouth
I could tell that I was losing

My source of comfort is now fading
And all I can do
Is cry

Nothing you can do
Is ever gonna hurt like this
Nothing you can say
Is ever gonna hurt like this

And I can't forget the one
I just can't forget the one
Said I can't forget the one
No I can't forget the one
I saw you holding

Why just doesn't matter
What I want to know is when

When did you stop craving
For the nearness of me
And my perfumed smell
When I play with your hair
And the feeling you get
When I touch you

The sun has set
Our love
Is shaded
And all I can do
Is cry

Nothing you can do
Is ever gonna hurt like this
Nothing you can say

And I can't forget the one
Said I can't forget the one
I saw you holding
