

Broken Eyes

Joan as Police Woman

I want you to
Invite me over
Hold me in your arms and say, 'You're mine'
I Don't care if it's a lie
I want to feel your heart beating next to mine
A little bit of love
A little bit of you is all I need
Tonight
I am starting over
I'll leave you early morning if you like
Make sure no one sees me
I'll slip into my own hotel alone
I'll never leave a clue
A little bit of you is all I need
Tonight
Can I fix your broken eyes?
Can you fix my broken
Fix my broken eyes?
Invite me over
I need to feel your heart beating next to mine
