Joan as Police Woman

Oh my lover, won't you tell me now
All the things that you fear
'Cause I am a lover for the first time
I am ready to hear
I am ready to hear

Show me lover all the things you see
All the apples you find
Show me the colours of the things that move you
In and out of your mind
In and out of your mind

I heard a flash
I heard a flash
I heard a flash
I heard a flash

Sing to me lover all the things you hear
All your moments in time
Let me in the rhythms of your heart
And how your eyes rhyme
And how your eyes rhyme

Part me lover like the red sea
Please don't hold back
Help me remember that I can't forget
And paint me jet black
Paint me jet black

I heard a flash
I heard a flash
I heard a flash

Don't you wonder when the earth will go
Watch the oceans wash away the snow

Oh my lover let me tell you now
All the things that I feel
I already cried a river so deep
Now I'm ready to heal
Now I'm ready to kneel

I heard a flash
I heard a flash
I heard a flash
I heard a flash
I heard a flash
I heard a flash
