

Stay

Joan as Police Woman

I just watch your hands
They move me
Touch my war my world
And even when I
Try to deny
My dirt-white flag unfurls

Why don't you stay
Why don't you stay
Why not
Why not
I found the fountains rare
Rinse off my burdens there

Desire is a strength,
Unwieldy,
Wild and come undone
I'm flashing eyes on you,
My island,
Feel the midnight sun

Why don't you stay
Why not
I found the fountains rare
Rinse off my burdens there

Could you know
How close you make me
Feel to feeling me?
I release another piece
Of my soul to you
And you hold it

With your own
