Drifter's Escape

Joan Baez

"Help me in my weakness"

I heard the drifter say

As they carried him from the courtroom

And were taking him away

"My trip hasn't been a pleasant one My time it isn't long And I still do not know What it was that I've done wrong"

Well, the judge, he cast his robe aside A tear came to his eye "You fail to understand", he said "Why must you even try?"

Outside, the crowd was stirring You could hear it from the door Inside, the judge was stepping down While the jury cried for more

"Oh, stop that cursed jury"
Cried the attendant and the nurse
The trial was bad enough
But this is ten times worse

Just then a bolt of lightning Struck the courthouse out of shape And while everybody knelt to pray The drifter did escape
