

Oh Lord Your Love

Joann Rosario

So giving, so giving
Abounding, abounding
Everlasting, everlasting
Refreshing, refreshing

No greater love
Something 'bout the way You love me
There's no greater love
Thank You for the way You love me

So giving, so giving
Abounding, abounding
Everlasting, everlasting
Refreshing, refreshing

No greater love
Something 'bout the way You love me
There's no greater love
Thank You for the way You love me

Taller than the mountains high
Greater than the oceans wide
Far more than stars in the sky
Your love for me, oh Lord Your love

Redeeming, redeeming
Forgiving, forgiving
Your love is restoring, restoring
So embracing, embracing

Taller than the mountains high
Greater than the oceans wide
Far more than stars in the sky
Your love for me, oh Lord Your love

Day by day it does unfold
More precious than silver and gold
Planted deep down in my soul
Your love for me, oh Lord Your love

Earthly love does not compare
Compassion great when life's not fair
When in need I find it there
Your love for me, oh Lord, Your love

Earthly love does not compare
Compassion great when life's not fair
When in need I find it there
Your love for me, oh Lord Your love

Earthly love does, does not compare
Compassion great when life's, when life's not fair
In need I find it there
Your love for me, oh Lord Your love

Earthly love does, does not compare
Compassion great when life's, when life's not fair

When in need I find it there
Your love for me, oh Lord Your love
