

Chit Chat Chatter

Jocelyn Alice

All I hear is chit chat chatter
All I know is it don't matter
It's almost like I'm alone
Almost like I don't know nobody at all

I've been talking all night
I've been wearing myself down
I've been looking for who
Isn't trying to look 'round
I've been trying to smile
But I'm smiling too loud
I've been waiting for days
And I'm waiting
Now you probably don't even notice
That I got tears in my eyes and
You keep on repeating your lines
Wondering why all of our time runs out
I've been talking all night
I've been wearing myself down
And I'm worn out

All I hear is chit chat chatter
All I know is it don't matter
It's almost like I'm alone
Almost like I don't know nobody at all

All I hear is chit chat chatter
All I know is it don't matter
It's almost like I'm alone
Almost like I don't know nobody at all

I've been talking all night
I've been wearing myself thin
I've been looking for who
Isn't trying to make wins
I've been trying to smile
But I'm smiling too big
I've been waiting for days
And I'm wondering
When you probably don't even notice
I got tears in my eyes and
You keep on repeating your lines
Wondering why all of our time runs out
I've been talking all night
I've been wearing myself thin
And I'm worn in

All I hear is chit chat chatter
All I know is it don't matter
It's almost like I'm alone
Almost like I don't know nobody at all

No, no, no, no, no, no, no, no, no
(All this chit chat)
All I need, all I need, all I need
No, no, no, no, no, no, no, no
(All this chit chat)

It's almost like, almost like
I'm alone, I'm alone, I'm alone
(All this chit chat chatter)
The chatter got me wishing I'm alone
The chatter got me wishing I was on my phone
The chatter got me down, chatter got me down
Oh no

(All I hear is chit chat chatter)
The chatter got me wishing I'm alone
(Chit chat chatter)
The chatter got me wishing I was on my phone
The chatter got me down, down, down, down
Down, down, down, down, down, down
