

Jackpot

Jocelyn Alice

I've waited so long to know
If your hand will take me home
Your next move is always slow
Now I can't wait anymore

Don't wanna go, don't wanna stay, don't wanna make a change
Don't wanna show, don't wanna cheat, don't wanna hesitate
Don't wanna hold, don't wanna bust, don't wanna raise
Don't wanna fold, don't wanna bluff I kinda like this game

All that I think about day and night
Is having you in my dream life
I'ma hit the jackpot right
All that I think about day and night
Is having you in my dream life
I'ma hit the jackpot right

You're faking like you're on top
Why can't we just split the pot?
We're suited, the dealer's not
This showdown, it'll never stop

Don't wanna go, don't wanna stay, don't wanna make a change
Don't wanna show, don't wanna cheat, don't wanna hesitate
Don't wanna hold, don't wanna bust, don't wanna raise
Don't wanna fold, don't wanna bluff I kinda like this game

All that I think about day and night
Is having you in my dream life
I'ma hit the jackpot right
Imma hit it, Imma hit it
All that I think about day and night
Is having you in my dream life
I'ma hit the jackpot right

Jackpot
We be winning like the pot got hot
We be winning like the cash gon' rain
We be winning we gon' do it again
Jackpot
We be winning like the pot got hot
We be winning like the cash gon' rain
Gon' do it again, gon' do it again
Gon' do it again

All that I think about day and night
Is having you in my dream life
I'ma hit the jackpot right
Imma hit it, Imma hit it
All that I think about day and night
Is having you in my dream life
I'ma hit the jackpot right

All that I think about (Jackpot)
Is having you (Jackpot)
All that I think about (Jackpot)
Is having you (Jackpot)
