

I said, "So, I'll see you later"
You don't got as many layers
I don't think this flavour gon' do
I said, "I will say a prayer"
You don't got as many layers
Your behaviour here isn't you

Tonight is the Fourth of July
And [?] is inside your eyes
So then why is it fights every time
Followed by you apologizing?

I said, "So, I'll see you later"
You don't got as many layers
I don't think this flavour gon' do
I said, "I will say a prayer"
You don't got as many layers
Your behaviour here isn't you

Goodbye's what I've seen in the way
That you don't chat and don't change
I stand by with no drink and no cake
Don't treat me like no lady

Don't want to admit that this could happen
Don't want to admit that you know it's true
All along, it started so tragic
Don't want to admit that I know it's through

I said, "So, I'll see you later"
You don't got as many layers
I don't think this flavour gon' do
I said, "I will say a prayer"
You don't got as many layers
Your behaviour here isn't you

I said, "So, I'll see you later"
You don't got as many layers
I don't think this flavour gon' do
I said, "I will say a prayer"
You don't got as many layers
Your behaviour here isn't you
