

Still Wondering

Jocelyn Alice

Hope is heavy
A hundred bricks lean on my chest
It's hard to breathe
No rest, and no sleep
A hundred reasons why you left
No sense to me

Even though I let go
And I don't call
I'm still wondering if you're out there at all
Do you think about me
When it gets hard
I'm still wondering if you're out there at all
Still wondering if you're out there at all
Still wondering if you're out there at all

If you had to count
All of the times you've thought of me
Would it take all day?
And if I could, I'd change
But you were the one that wanted this
Yeah, you, not me

Even though I let go
And I don't call
I'm still wondering if you're out there at all
Do you think about me
When it gets hard
I'm still wondering if you're out there at all
Still wondering if you're out there at all
Still wondering if you're out there at all

Through the years I cry the tears
I knew I needed to
I let go of all the hurt
When let go of you
I don't want to see you
I just wanna know the truth
Still wondering if you're out there at all

Hope is heavy
A hundred bricks lean on my chest
It's hard to breathe

Even though I let go
And I don't call
I'm still wondering if your out there at all
Do you think about me
When it gets hard
I'm still wondering if you're out there at all
Still wondering if you're out there at all
Still wondering if you're out there at all
