

You Are the One

Jocelyn Enriquez

You know I never felt this way before
When I'm around you, I keep wanting more and more
And all these feelings, I have for you are so true
I always want to be close to you

I felt the love you gave to me so unselfishly
Somehow you found how to bring out the best of me
Let me see what I feel
I hope you know it's for real
I need your heart to realize

You are the one
The one that I dream of
You are my life
You are my everything
I care for you so much, that's why you need to know
You are my love
Love is forever with you dear
Give you my all
Give you my everything
I care for you so much, that's why you need to know

You are the one

When you hold me in your arms, nothing can go wrong
You know when to be gentle and when to be strong
Still I give in, to trust in the love so new
You've got me always thinking of you

All the moments that we spend are so dear to me
Somehow you found how to bring out the best of me
When I look in your eyes, I'm so glad you are mine
I need for you to realize

Happiness found me
When you came into my life
In my heart, you are the only one
In my mind, you're the one I'm thinking of
And I know, this love would be untrue
Without you, cuz baby
