I guess I'm in a trace my baby don't understand,
It's far beyond romance you still have my love and care,
I really need someone who's nasty as can be,
Excuse me baby that's her with that funky body,
She passed her number and said call me anytime,
It seems like every night she pops right in my mind,
I only called just to say what could be,
She should come over here and baby play with me.

Excuse me baby,
If you start to wonder,
She's just my playthang,
Don't know her name,
I just know her number,
She's just my playthang.

She's got all the thangs that make her sexy too,
I never thought I'd dream of havin so much fun,
Now I know it's my playthang,
She's the one that brings me so much,

So complex,
The definition of a word called sex,
You won't find in a work context,
And even better when you starts to flex your neck,
Yo I get a wax legit,
And on the board the lady won't quit,
And when I'm doin' her in the spring,
No doubt,
Sup D,
Let's tell her what you wanna get.
