

Don't Hand Me Your Hangups

Joe Bonamassa

Don't hand me your hangups
When I got my own hangups for free
Don't hand me your hangups
When I got my own hangups for free

I got me a woman who knows how to make me cry
I got me a woman, so petrified
I got me a woman looks good in a wig
I got me a woman who loves to dance that jig

Don't hand me your hangups
When I got my own hangups for free
Don't hand me your hangups
When I got my own hangups for free

I got me a woman who likes to mess around
I got me a woman from the southside of town
I got me a woman who drinks a lot of wine
I got me a woman, hell, she's drunk all the time

Don't hand me your hangups
When I got my own hangups for free
Don't hand me your hangups
When I got my own hangups for free

I got me a woman with sexy legs
I got me a woman, so damn good in bed
I got me a woman who likes to drain my will
I got me a woman, man, she's crazy as hell

Don't hand me your hangups
When I got my own hangups for free...

Don't hand me your hangups
Don't hand me your hangups
Don't hand me your hangups
