

I Know Where I Belong

Joe Bonamassa

Oh my baby,
It's been a long time comin' yeah yeah,
I'm on my back home to you.
Oh, This time I stepped up to plate yeah,
I didn't mean to do you no harm baby.

Situations change yeah yeah,
I make amends because I'm strong.
All my friend have helped me,
I know where I belong.

I declare,
I've been alone without you too long.
If I call will you be there?
Oh next time I'll make no mistakes yeah,
I won't leave you like I did before baby.

Situations change yeah yeah,
I make amends because I'm strong.
All my friend have helped me,
I know where I belong.

Oh baby you,
You knew I was long gone,
But did you ever once shed a tear?
Oh your life is like a prison baby yeah yeah,
I never meant to waste your precious time.

Situations change yeah yeah,
I make amends because I'm strong.
All my friend have helped me,
I know where I belong.
