

Love Is A Gamble

Joe Bonamassa

You say love is just a gamble babe
And every loser loves a thrill
Said our love is just a gamble babe
And every loser loves a thrill

When the hand that you're holding don't bring no luck baby and
There's a chance that the next one will

Whoa I've bet it on one woman baby
Laid my heart on the line
I bet it on one woman baby
I didn't know that she was the cheating kind

You say love is just a gamble babe
And every loser loves a thrill
Said our love is just a gamble babe
And every loser loves a thrill

When the hand that you're holding don't bring no luck baby and
There's a chance that the next one will

It's a kinda game baby
That's never played by the rules
Oh, oh it's a kinda game baby
That's never played by the rules

Anyone thinks that he's winning baby
Oh some day you gonna play the fool
You play the hand you're given baby
And put your trust on your luck
Sometimes you gotta walk away baby
When love, came in the door

Say love is just a gamble babe
And every loser loves a thrill

If the hand that you're holding don't bring no luck baby and
There's a chance that the next one will
