

Stronger Now In Broken Places

Joe Bonamassa

You left me, you tore me up
Didn't know a man can hurt that much
For a while I was all broke up
But I found I could take it

And I'm stronger now
In broken places

I found out that time can heal
Takes me to a place way more real
In the pain that I had to feel
Didn't know I could take it

And I'm stronger now
In broken places

I guess you can't understand
All you put me through
Took all the strength I had
For me to forgive you

I look back now
How much you laid me low
The lessons of love that I was shown
Whenever hurt comes my way I know
I found a way to free it

And 'cause I'm stronger now
In broken places
Yes I'm stronger now
In broken places
