

Runaway

Joe Brooks

Hold on, hold on seems like a very long way to, to go, to go
Many steps in the wrong direction.
Please stay, yeah. don't leave me here just stay, yeah.
Don't let me run away, yeah. don't run away.

See your face now it's lookin tired oh
What's the reason this time.
Well you're on your knees and you're begging please
Don't let this be don't don't run away.
Don't leave me here, just stay.
Don't let me run away. don't run away.

Hold on, hold on, won't leave you standin here alone. alone.
Break the tide before it takes you away.
Don't run away.

Don't don't don't don't run away.
Don't don't don't don't don't don't don't run away.

And I see your face now it's lookin tired.
Oh what's the reason this time.
Well you're going on your knees and you're beggin please
Don't let this be. don't don't run away.
Don't leave me here just stay.
Don't let me run away. don't run away.

Well you're going on your knees and you're beggin please
Don't let this be. don't don't run away.
Don't leave me here just stay.
Don't let me run away.
Don't run away.

Hold on, hold on,
Won't leave you standin here alone, alone.
Break the tide before it takes you away.
Don't run away.
