

Ain't That Bad Enough

Joe Diffie

You just had to call and tell me there's another
You must love to hear a grown man cry and suffer
Tell me when this pain will end, I can't take too much
All the good is gone, ain't that bad enough
Just when I thought my heart had started healin'
I heard your voice, it brought back those old feelings
You let me down, why come around again to tear me up
All the good is gone, ain't that bad enough
Ain't it bad enough to know you left me here this way
Are you satisfied I die a little more each day
How much worst do I have to hurt, you sure make it tough
All the good is gone, ain't that bad enough
Ain't it bad enough to know you left me here this way
Are you satisfied I die a little more each day
Tell me when, this pain will end, I can't take too much
All the good is gone, ain't that bad enough
Oh... all the good is gone, ain't that bad enough
