You sure look fine tonight, in the beer sign light Why did you seem surprised when I saw through your disguise All your friends were there, no one had a care They all just looked away in this honky tonk masquerade

You should have known I knew all along
That I could see through you, right or wrong
I didn't need a clue, I didn't even have to ask
You saw your own reflection in the glass

I'd like to see you home, but I know you're not alone You seem to fit right in, as you tell me where you've been You say there's not that much to tell but I know you oh, too we 11

Your eyes give you away in this honky tonk masquerade

You should have known I knew all along
I could see through you, right or wrong
I didn't need a clue, I didn't even have to ask
You saw your own reflection in the glass

You sure look fine tonight, they're turning out the lights Why did you hold my sleeve when I said I had to leave I hoped it never showed, that's the way it goes As the lights begin to fade on this honky tonk masquerade
