

Neon Rain

Joe Jackson

I stepped out in the pouring rain
To find a place where they feel my pain
Gonna cry where they can't complain
Gonna howl like a hurricane

You don't like me
You don't need me
You won't see me
On the other side of town in the Neon Rain

Got a head like an egg that is gonna crack
Gonna go straight to hell and I won't come back
Gonna head down the track on a Mystery Train

Got the drug gonna drive me sane
Gonna fly like an aeroplane
When my mind can't take the strain
Crack my head and eat my brain

You don't need me
You won't see me
On the other side of town in the Neon Rain
