

Falling Out

Joe Jonas

It's like a rush, yeah, it's like a rush in my head
'Cause when I go home, if I go home, will you be there?
I'm tryin' hard, yeah, tryin' hard is what you said
'Cause when it goes down, if it goes down, will you see it?

But in my mind, we're alright
We don't lie, we don't hide
In my mind, in my mind

'Cause I'm falling out
Feels like I'm paralyzed
A million reasons why
I don't wanna be the last to know
Yeah, I'm falling out
Won't let us lose tonight
A million reasons why
I don't wanna be the last to know

It's like you're running, running from what you need
But when you slow down, if you call out, will I be there?
I need to know, yeah, I need to know what you feel
But when it goes down, if it goes down, will you see it?

But in my mind, we're alright
We don't lie, we don't hide
In my mind, in my mind

'Cause I'm falling out
Feels like I'm paralyzed
A million reasons why
I don't wanna be the last to know
Yeah, I'm falling out
Won't let us lose tonight
A million reasons why
I don't wanna be the last to know

In my mind, you and I
We can try, we got time
In my mind, in my mind

'Cause I'm falling out
Feels like I'm paralyzed
A million reasons why
I don't wanna be the last to know
Yeah, I'm falling out
Won't let us lose tonight
A million reasons why
I don't wanna be the last to know
