

Parachute

Joe Jonas

So darling, how you breathing?
Yeah, elevation's higher in this feeling
I'm starting to believe it
Heartbreak only lasts a couple seasons, yeah

Even if these eyes start crying
Even if I'm kissing lightning
Dancing in a cage with lions
I'll be fine, yeah, I'll be fine, yeah
Even if I'm late to the party
Even if my boots get dirty
Dancing in a cage with thirty
I'll be fine, yeah, I'll be fine, yeah

I don't know where I might land
Got life back in my hands
I'm dusting off my parachute
I was halfway off my head
Tiptoeing on the edge
I'm dusting off my parachute

To be honest, my naked finger
Still has a 14-karat kind of whisper
Cinderella needs new slippers
The memory is thicker than a picture
Oh, mmm

Even if I'm late to the party
Even if my boots get dirty
Dancing in a cage with thirty
I'll be fine, yeah, I'll be fine, yeah

I don't know where I might land
Got life back in my hands
I'm dusting off my parachute
I was halfway off my head
Tiptoeing on the edge
I'm dusting off my parachute
