

Mama Hold Me

Joe Jordan

I don't need to hold your hand to cross that street' I'll be just fine
I don't need to be back before dark
I don't need to get straight A's
To make a lotta money in a suit and tie
Momma don't you know I'm gonna be a rockstar

I thought I didn't need you
I let go too soon
Now I'm scared and I lost my way
Lately I've been drowning
But I ain't too proud to say

Mama hold me
I'm shaking and I can't come down
Only
You can save me now
I know I'm grown
But your job ain't done
There's still monsters that I can't outrun
So hold me
Like only you know how

I didn't think it'd get this dark, that'd be this hard
But now I'm stumbling home
Could you leave the light on
You're the only one in the whole wide world
That loves me broken as I am
Could you piece me back together in your arms

Mama hold me
I'm shaking and I can't come down
Only
You can save me now
I know I'm grown
But your job ain't done
There's still monsters that I can't outrun
So hold me
Like only you know how

I thought I didn't need you
I let go too soon
Now I'm scared and I lost my way
Lately I've been drowning
But I ain't too proud to say

Hold me
I'm shaking and I can't come down
I'm breaking and I'm bleeding out

Only
You can save me now
I know I'm grown, but your job ain't done
There's still monsters that I can't outrun
So hold me
