

Can't Face Another Night

Joe Lynn Turner

It's too late
Can't tum back the hands of time
I tried to forget you
But you're always on my mind
It's too bad
That we never found a way
I thought it would be easy
It's getting harder everyday

I'm so far gone
It's more than I can take
'Cause I've had my share of loneliness
I'm just about to break, baby

I can't face another night
When you're not by my side
A part of me just dies without you
In my dreams I'll hold you tight
Can't face another night, no, no

So far away
I was wishing you would call
Don't you know that I need your touch
I still can feel it all
Baby, I'm In trouble
The walls are closing in Can't you see that I'm holding on Till I'm with you again, oh

This desperate heart is reaching out for you
'Cause I've had my share of loneliness
I don't know what to do, baby

I can't face another night
When you're not by my side
A part of me just dies without you
In my dreams I'll hold you tight
Can't face another night
When you're not by my side
How much can I take
I'm just about to break

I can't face another night
When you're not by my side
A part of me just dies without you
In my dreams I'll hold you tight
Can't face another night

I can't face another night
When you're not by my side
A part of me just dies without you
Can't face another nigh
