

Sex and Money

Joe Lynn Turner

Look at life
The only thing for sure
It's given and it's taken
Will you get it tonight
Will it be for nothing
Or every thing you're makin'
But you want to roll the dice now
One more time

Go and make your play
Decide your indecision
But you'll pray
To your monetary god
To buy a now religion
You think you got the key to paradise
In your hand
The only thing you understand is

Sex and money
Will you ever see the light
Sex and money
You keep on tryin'
But you never get it right
Sex and money

So extreme
Take unnecessary chances
One day you'll regret it
Beyond your means
Living on romances
And running out of credit
And you think it's gonna fit into your Master plan
You better get out while you can (from)

Sex and money
Now will you ever see the light
Sex and money
You keep on tryin'
But you never get it right

Yeah, come on
Sex and money
You better call your lawyer or your wife
Sex and money
Well, you could lose your soul tonight
Sex and money
Sex and money is your life
Sex and money
But will you ever see the light
Sex and money
You keep on trying
But you never get it right
Sex and money
You better call your lawyer or wife
Sex and money
To you it always seems

so black and white
Sex and money tonight
