

The Last Thing

Joe Lynn Turner

There's only so much time
Nobody knows their fate
Some believe true lover's what we need other's learn that lesson too late

Time had left my side
And I, thought my chance had passed
Then I saw the light in your eyes
Realized love had pound me at last

No matter what happens
This love won't fade
I'll be beside you
Every step of the way
I won't left you down
This I promise you
That'd be the last thing
That'd be the last thing I do

I must have been blind
There's so much I didn't see
Pound myself in a brand new world
Gave me a reason to believe

No matter what happens
This love won't fade
I'll be beside you
Every step of the way
I won't left you down
This I promise you
That'd be the last thing
baby, that'd be the last thing I do

When the storm rage
Outside your window
Trying to steal your dreams
Just remember
You're not alone
You can run to me

No matter what happens
This love won't fade
I'll be beside you
Every step of the way
I won't left you down
This I promise you
That'd be the last thing I do

No matter what happens
This love won't fade
I'll be beside you
Every step of the way
This I promise you
