

To Have A Broken Heart

Joe McElderry

People tell me
I'm too young to know
That I'll get over you
In time I'll let you go
But they don't feel
The way I feel right now
If they knew you
In the way I did
How you loved me
They'd understand
This pain is real
And time won't heal, so
[Chorus:]
This is how it feels
To be torn apart
The sky is falling down
And I'm lost in the dark
How will I ever get over you?
How will I ever get over you?
I know I've got to try
But I'm dyin' inside

And I don't know where to start
So this is how it feels to have a broken heart
The world looks different now
And I realize
I'm not invincible
I'm just another guy
Who paid the price
And loved and loves
I wonder where you are
Though I can't stop myself
Keep thinking that
Maybe you're with someone else
It's killing me
I want to be free, so

[Repeat Chorus]
I've got a broken heart, so
[Repeat Chorus]
