

Caroline

Joe Purdy

Don't fall in love with me, Caroline
I am not what you need
And the timing is wrong
But you are the sweetest flower
You are the softest angel
And you light the darkness night
Warm the coolest [?]

I heard the stories
About you sailing
And the kindness you showed

And they say that you're the water
And they say that you're the breeze
And they tell me you're the daughter
Of the raging seas

I had a home it was
In the south land
Where the garden was made

And I had a loving woman
And she had a heart of gold
And my mind began to wander
Past the fields at home

So I moved west to where
I met the heart-breaker
And she took everything I owned

And she threw it off a mountain
Just before she ran away
And I swore she was my true love
And now it's hard to say

Wish I could give you
All you're after
Guess something I ain't got

Some written in a story
Something lost upon the [?]
Like a spell that can't be broken
A song that can't be sung

Don't fall in love with me, Caroline
I am not what you need
And the timing is wrong
But you are the sweetest flower
You are the softest angel
And you light the darkness night
Warm the coolest [?]

So do not come to me
Cause I will not give you [?]
