Late at night midnight movie got no one to talk to, no one to see and I am counting stars as I lay awake dear I know you aint far, but I know you aint here for me

So why do I get so lonely when there really aint nothing wrong cause I can sleep just fine when you hold me cant sleep at all when you're gone yeah and why do I stay out drinkin' oh let's just get back home I got some company with strangers it's better than drinkin alone too tired to sing walking down the street and still cant sleep, just too many things I got running around my head cant put my thoughts to rest think ill wait outside, when you wake I will confess

So why do I get so lonely when there really aint nothing wrong
cause I can sleep just fine when you hold me
cant sleep at all when you're gone
yeah and why do I stay out drinkin' oh let's just get back home
I got some company with strangers
it's better than drinkin alone

So why do I get so lonely when there really aint nothing wrong
cause I can sleep just fine when you hold me
cant sleep at all when you're gone yeah and why why do I stay out drinkin' when I should just get back home
I got some company with strangers
it's better than drinkin alone

So why do I get so lonely when there really aint nothing wrong
So why do I get so lonely when there really aint nothing wrong
So why do I get so lonely yeah there really aint nothing wrong
So why do I get so lonely yeah there really aint nothing wrong
