

My Fondest Memories

Joe South

I remember things
To which my heart still clings
Such as our first dance
That night we found romance
All these little things
My fondest memories

Rememb'ring songs we heard
And each tender word
A tear upon your face
The thrill of your embrace

When I recall our love
It's just like Heaven above
When I recall a fire
That burns with your desire
That unworldly bliss
I found in your kiss

Remembering how you cried
And when the echoes died
All these things became
My fondest memories

Each time I feel the fire
That burns with your desire
That unworldly bliss
I found in your kiss

Rememb'ring how you cried
And when the echoes died
All these things became
My fondest memories