

To Have To Hold And Let Go

Joe South

To have, to hold and let go
To love as above, so beloved
I've got too much human pride
And God only knows I tried
To have, to hold and let go

Now you're free to go with the flow
And I act like I don't even know, yeah
'Cause your happiness is my concern
And it's a lesson that I had to learn
To have, to hold and let go

My life was a song
The music and the words arranged all wrong
Out of style
But every time I think of you I smile
You were mine for a little while
To have, to hold and let go

My life was a song
The music and the words arranged all wrong
Out of style
But every time I think of you I smile
You were mine for a little while
To have, to hold and let go

To have, to hold and let go
To have, to hold and let go
Baby, baby, baby, baby