

A Womans Hands

Joe Tex

You and have come a long way together
Haven't we baby?
Heh, I remember when times were bad
You stood right by me
Didn't you darling?
Oh, and I love you for that

But I don't want to your little heart to Want for a thing
Because if I've only got one life to live
Like they say
Then I wanna spend that one life
Taking care of you
Because baby, I'm a true believer
In an old saying that I heard a lady say one time
As I was travelin' through the world somewhere
I don't remember where it was

Log on to hide ad. But I remember this old lady sittin' on her front porch lo okin' at her hands
That the years had wrinkled and twisted
And as she looked at her hands
She looked back up at me and she said
She said, "Son, a woman's hands, huh
Just weren't made to work hard
All the time. can't you see that?"
I know a lot of men are gonna be made at me for sayin' that
But I got to say it again
I said, A woman's hands
Just weren't made to work hard
All the time

Here's what they were made for
They were made to rub a mans head
Make her man some bread
Fix him a good cup of coffee
And put his children to bed
And that's what
A woman's hands were made for
Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah
You think that's something?
Listen to this
A woman's love
Wasn't made to worry
All the time
And the quicker the men realize that
The better off the world's gonna be
Listen to me

I said, a woman's mind
Wasn't made to worry
All the time
Listen, it was made to pick up
Cuddle little things to do to survive her man
And try to keep him smiling
As long as she can
That's what a woman's mind

Was made for

Ah that's what a woman's mind was made for
