

The Woman Cares

Joe Tex

The Woman Cares.

-----

My baby won't let my love supply get low.

When the love gets low, you know, she comes and gives me some more.

She is a love provider, oh yes she is.

And she has no equalizer, oh no.

And that's why I know the woman cares.

She's proven that she cares.

I know, you don't have to tell me. I know my baby cares.

When i am sick, my baby can always tell.

She is the medicine that it takes to make me well.

She ain't got no doctor's degree, oh no.

In fact, i heard her tell a doctor, she don't want him injecting me.

And that's why I know that the woman cares

I know my baby cares.

I know, you don't have to tell me. I know my baby cares.

People, you know it's heaven just being around the girl, oh yes it is.

That's why I know heaven can't be up in the sky.

It's got to be right down here on this earth.

I got me a piece of it.

My baby really cares

you don't have to tell me.

don't tell me.

I know my baby cares
