

Hurricane

Joe

Wind keeps beatin' at my window
But the night sky is clear and beautiful
Feels like there's a storm of love arrivin'
And I can't hold back these waves anymore
Funny how I never saw it comin'
In my head I thought I seen it all
There's no place left for my heart to be hidin'
You're a force a nature tearin' down these walls

Hurricane, hurricane
Beautiful destruction
Caught up in your velvet riptide
You take me away
Hurricane, hurricane
Rain of seduction
My sweet Novocaine
My comfort, my pain
My hurricane

Thought I built myself that perfect safe house
I always felt inside I was secure
It worked on everyone that came before me
But you found your way through barricaded doors
More and more I feel the pressure risin'
Ever higher every time we touch
I know I won't prevail
I'm no match for nature's gale
And I have no place to go and wait it out

Hurricane, hurricane
Beautiful destruction
Caught up in your velvet riptide
You swept me away
Hurricane, hurricane
Rain of seduction
My sweet Novocaine
My comfort, my pain
My hurricane

In the fury of the storm, there's no safety line
No lighthouse in the distance that'll save me now
All I can do is fall into you

Hurricane, hurricane
Beautiful destruction
Caught up in your velvet riptide
You swept me away
Hurricane, hurricane
Rain of seduction
My sweet Novocaine
My comfort, my pain
My hurricane
