

Tough Guy

Joe

So many movin' parts
When a man's gotta finish what he starts
(But he won't back down)
Don't send a text
'Cause a cell phone can't possess a beating heart
(Look in her eyes)

We're galaxies apart, and that's no way to live
With two stubborn hearts, something's gotta give

Oh why (why)
Why you gotta be such a tough guy
You made her cry
Inside (inside)
She's probably feelin' like she just died
Don't cry

Why can't we understand
How our words can shape the deepest pain
(Take a look in her eyes)
Thunderin' hearts
Leave her tears fallin' like pourin' rain

We're galaxies apart, it's no way to live
With two stubborn hearts, something's gotta give

Oh why (why)
Why you gotta be such a tough guy (tough guy)
Just tell her you're sorry
Inside (inside)
She's probably feelin' like she just died
Baby don't cry

(Now love's lookin' over her shoulder)
(Somewhere thinkin' it's over)
(Cryin', wishin' you would just hold her)
And I don't want (don't want)
Her to think that it's over
(She will only take but so much)
(Don't let her walk away from your touch)
(It only takes so much, takes so much)

Oh why (why)
Why you gotta be such a tough guy
Just tell her you're sorry right now
Inside (inside)
She's probably feelin' like she just died
Don't cry
