

Better

Joeboy

I know you see me on your tele
But you can call me on your telephone
Whenever you need somebody
I promise you that I'd be coming home o yeah

It's really funny
You give me butterflies inna me tummy
When I have a rainy day you make it sunny (sunny sunny)
When you call me baby I'll be running, running, running eh
Is he the reason for the scar on your face?
If na so then me I fit to put a fucking bullet in his head (o yeah)
Is he the reason for the scar on your face?
If na so then me I fit to put a fucking bullet in his head (no wo o yeah)
(Who the brother who go do you) better?
(Let me) do you better
Tell me who go do you better?
Do you better
(Say who the brother who go do you) better?
(Let me) do you better
(Who go) do you better?

He don't treat you like I do
He don't give you roses anymore
He don't make you feel so good
Make you feel like he don't want you anymore
He don't treat you like I do (I do)
He don't give you roses anymore
He don't make you feel so good
Make you feel like he don't want you anymore
Better, do you better
Better, do you better
Say who the brother who go do you better?
Do you better
Who go do you better?
Do you better
Don't you know that you are beautiful
And everything you do is wonderful
You for no let a man treat you so bad
And if he does he's a big fool, oh, oh
