

Bed Alone

Joel Adams

You and me we're like a brand-new Bonnie and Clyde
Jack and Rose on our own Titanic tonight
You could be my baby dirty dancing all night

And our sex could get a little bit criminal too
Loving on me loving on you
Handcuffs by the dresser what you wanna do?

Because every little thing
Every little thing every little thing you do
Makes me think I like you, ooh yeah
And every little thing
Every little thing every little thing you say
Makes me think you like me
And I just can't say no

Soon or later when you're ready take me home
We don't have to go
To bed all alone
It might sound crazy but I really think you should know
We don't have to go to bed all alone

If you want to Postmates and chill or Netflix and chill we can get a bottle from
The store I got time to kill
So take me home
We don't got to let the neighbours know
But we can still let the neighbours know
Would they get jealous by the way
I touch you?
If you want to stay
I'll let you
We don't have to wait till our clothes are off

Soon or later when you're ready take me home
We don't have to go
To bed all alone
It might sound crazy but I really think you should know
We don't have to go to bed all alone
(Sooner when you're ready take me home)
We don't gotta go, go to bed all alone
We don't, we don't gotta go , go to bed all alone
Soon or later when you're ready take me home
We don't have to go
To bed all alone
It might sound crazy but I really think you should know
We don't have to go to bed all alone
