

What Would You Do?

Joel Corry

This may come as a surprise
But I keep how I feel inside, and tonight
There ain't nothing left to hide
Still got one question on my mind
My mind, ooh, my mind

Would you stay or would you run away?
I'm not saying forever
But you got me feeling some type of way
Are you down? 'Cause I really gotta know

What would you do if I told you I loved you, baby?
What would you do if I told you I need you, baby?
Would you come through if I told you to kiss me, babe?
What would you do? What would you do, what would you do?

What would you do, do, do? Ah
What would you do, do, do, do? Ah
Oh, what would you do, do, do? Ah
If I told you I loved you, babe
What would you do?

Man this feeling's crazy
That's how I know I'm ready
In my mind you're mind
But do you feel the same thing
I wanna be the one you call
I'll be there
Wanna show you I care
Know you'll fold when I'm there, but

Would you stay or would you run away?
I'm not saying forever
But you got me feeling some type of way
Are you down? 'Cause I really gotta know

What would you do if I told you I loved you, baby?
What would you do if I told you I need you, baby?
Would you come through if I told you to kiss me, babe?
What would you do? What would you do, what would you do?

What would you do, do, do? Ah
What would you do, do, do, do? Ah
Oh, what would you do, do, do? Ah
If I told you I loved you, babe
What would you do?
