

Morals On The Floor

Joel Faviere

Your clothes
thrown to the floor
With morals left at the door
Take an easy swing
Cause a kiss is a kiss
Not a touch
Nor a fuck
You cannot get enough of him

Insecure...
but oh so sure Insecure...
but oh so sure
I don't know the half of you
But all those pretty little (all those pretty little)
boys
They sure do
(they sure do)
I don't know the half of you
But all those pretty little (all those pretty little)
boys
They sure do (they sure do)

WOW
When this goes public
I won't think twice of it States away or a couple hours
I'll spend my game with all my power
Hours away but you play an awful game
(What did you say?)
Hours away
(What did you say?)
But you play an awful game
What did you say?

Insecure... but oh so sure
Insecure... but oh so sure

I know that each and every single person that has the time and the will to listen to this song
Have experienced
Have felt Conveyed love
what they thought was love
Not knowing what love was Thought they were Columbus
just know discovering it for the first time Well you know what?
That was me
That was me!
and it's you
and every single clique

and group of people at your school that they think they know what it is, that they do and this is Just do it all again

Insecure... but oh so sure
(do it all again)
Insecure... but oh so sure
(do it all again)
Insecure... but oh so sure
Insecure... but oh so sure
Do it all again
