

The Word

Joell Ortiz

The fifteen year old, sixteen year old kid that cyphered on the block wants to battle That guy in me wants to battle
The recording artist wants to stay out of that ring I've always rapped with my back against the wall because I've w anted to knock down that invisible wall of "He's nice for a Pue rto Rican"
I love it, I love it I'm proud to be, you know, what I am But like when it comes to like this music thing like I think li ke since it's something just for the ears like I don't think pe ople should look at it with their eyes When it's all said and done and they bring up Joell Ortiz I wan t them to be like "Son was nice"
