

Apt 22

Joeſef

I don't know what I need
Remember when you used to care
Both your hands still running through my hair
I kissed you
But you left me in a hotel room
Apartment number twenty-two

I'm out my mind
You're on my mind

Sometimes, I still wake up thinking you're by my side
It's like how it was before
Underneath the weight of everything, I'm so tired
It's harder at night 'cause I can still feel you by my side

How can you forget?
We were dancing to "Pictures of You"
Till you took the air right out the room
I can't see no end
All the messages I never sent
I love you now, I loved you then

I'm out my mind
You're on my mind

Sometimes, I still wake up thinking you're by my side
It's like how it was before
Underneath the weight of everything, I'm so tired
It's harder at night 'cause I can still feel you by my side

Sometimes, I still wake up thinking you're by my side
It's like how it was before
Underneath the weight of everything, I'm so tired
It's harder at night 'cause I can still feel you by my side

I can still feel you by my side
I can still feel you by my side
