

Kerosene

Joeseef

He said he likes boys with a bump in their nose
Something off putting to upset the mode
Gave him jacket but we ain't going home
Can't tell my mother she doesn't know

That when he touches me
Starting to feel
Things I've never felt before
Fire on kerosene
I'm in deep
I've met a boy

It wasn't planned nothing like a first date
Just a apart six drinks deep it was light
He fell asleep on the couch next to me
Make no mistake, I put my hand in his
It kinda felt the same

Just him and me
On bath street
Fire on kerosene
I'm in deep I met a boy

I hardly know him but across from his view
It's fucking hard trying to keep my cool
If you're the same as me who makes the first move?
Help me out here man I'm new to this, what's good?

But then he touches me
And I feel at ease again
Fire on kerosene
I'm in deep
I met a boy

In the dark of night I see you better
I just think I could stay here for ever with you
But in the blue of your eyes, I'm in disguise
Cause I don't think. I'll tell nobody this fire is bright
Can't see anything in sight
But you

Fire on kerosene
I'm in deep
I met a boy
Fire on kerosene
I'm in deep
I met a boy
