

Last Orders

Joeseef

You're saying right where you are
Is where you wanted to be
Last orders rings through the bar
But you're still waiting on me

Doesn't matter where you go
Or who you end up going with
I know you would risk it all
The second that you saw me come in

When you hear my name
Does it tear you apart?
Nothing you can say
Could break my heart

But I can hear your song in my head and it plays as I'm walking away
Keep flicking through your phone on the bed with your eyes begging me to stay
Now your face is as cold as the kitchen floor
But the heart in your chest says you love me more
Look at the sky as it falls over you now I'm walking away

I planted flowers with the promises I made in my head
They didn't live long in your forest fire, that's what you've got left

Doesn't matter where you go
Or who you end up going with
Hope you find somebody else
Someone who can put up with your shit

When you hear my name
Does it tear you apart?
Nothing you can say
Could break my heart

But I can hear your song in my head and it plays as I'm walking away
Keep flicking through your phone on the bed with your eyes begging me to stay
Now your face is as cold as the kitchen floor
But the heart in your chest says you love me more
Look at the sky as it falls over you now I'm walking away

Face is as cold as the kitchen floor
But the heart in your chest says you love me more
Face is as cold as the kitchen floor
But the heart in your chest says you love me more

But I can hear your song in my head and it plays as I'm walking away
Keep flicking through your phone on the bed with your eyes begging me to stay
Now your face is as cold as the kitchen floor
But the heart in your chest says you love me more
Look at the sky as it falls over you now I'm walking away
Look at the sky as it falls over you I'm still walking away
Look at the sky as it falls over you I'm still walking away
