

Limbo

JoeSeF

I never wanted to be
On the receiving end of your animosity
Oh, how cruel you can be
But it was part of your charm
And I got disarmed so naturally
I never thought I'd say
That I hate you but isn't
That love in a different way
Stuck in that mentality
Between bitterness and loneliness
How can I get over this?
When you're still all over me
And I don't feel like letting go
Stuck in this limbo

'Cause I don't feel like letting go
So I live in this limbo

I'm finding it hard to see
The line we finally tried to put up in between us
No responsibility
But you still get jealous and, yes, I'm still shuffling nervous ly
I tried to stay far away
But nothing else feels the same
Sick of this playing game
But somehow you end up next to me
And we just can't be home alone
Stuck in this limbo

'Cause I don't feel like letting go
So I live in this limbo

So here we are again
Picking up my shorts from the bottom of your bed
I don't know if I can do this anymore
I just feel like letting go
Stuck in this limbo

'Cause I don't feel like letting go
So I live in this limbo
'Cause I don't feel like letting go
So I live in this limbo
