

On & On

Joey Bada$$

[Intro - Joey Bada$$:]

Mama I just booked a first class ticket to my destiny by the way
Yeah

[Bridge - Maverick Sabre:]

Maybe I'mma fly away
Maybe I'mma fly away, some day

[Verse 1 - Joey Bada$$:]

So gullible just like my first love
Stay humble, but I knew that I was first up
Picked up the pen and that's when I drew my first blood
Spit my heart again, cause the pain'll never end
Happiness is temporary, always has been
I just lost one, but sometimes I win
I always spread love, but sometimes I sin
I only trust some, that's why I keep a few friends
Funny cause I used to see my circle never end
Always kept like 47 friends in my circumference
All that's left now is the radiance
They still here, trying to find love on this atmosphere
Things get severe for everybody, everywhere
This is my moment of truth, right here
Swear I ain't scared of no man
I see the omens
I pick 'em up and keep it rollin'
The omnipresence is omnipotent
But I keep going, 'til it's all said and done
I show all my soul purpose but I'm pretty sure there's one
There's a reason why I've come, new season's just begun
This the death of a psychopomp but a birth of God's son

[Hook - Joey Bada$$:]

Don't mourn me when I'm gone, celebrate my travels
Whenever you need me, just take a plane to the astral zone
I'm headed home, I've been hurting too long
Time don't stand still, so you gotta move on

[illegible]

[Verse 2 - Joey Bada$$:]

I had a dream I seen my name on the gravel stone
And read here lies a G followed by a poem
I couldn't see the words but I'm sure what's in his own
Funny that I write most when I know my feeling's wrong
With both shoulders that my head is always on
I trudge through harm's way with heavy boulders on my arm
I feel strong as I walk through the many storms that
Rain on my parade, seen the dust cry for days
I'm feeling like a young prince, I'm drinking today
My name ring bells all the way to heaven's gate
Though STEEZy told about me, yo I know he always watching
I guess there really is a heaven for us hip hoppers
I really miss my partner
But I know he with Big Poppa, 2 Pacs, and the big L rolled proper
And that's a big pun, know that I'mma join him

When my time come, but the story just begun, so

[Hook - Joey Bada$$]

[Bridge 2 - Maverick Sabre:]

One day I'mma fly away

One day I'mma fly away (Fly away, fly away)

One day you will fly away (Fly away, fly away)

One day we will fly away (Fly away, fly away)

[Verse 3 - Dyemond Lewis:]

My clouds grey, I hope my pain don't show

Looking in the sky I wonder where them rainbows go

They say that if we reign, them pot-of-gold's will show

Even skating down the block don't feel the same no more

If I ain't looking, I still see it all

My vision's jaded, too much bitches rubbed the crystal balls

They stay scheming, y'all like the sheep to the shepherd

The trees to the leaves, you needed but not needed

So I work alone, lone wolf, stay creeping

I'd rather hunt on my own then be owned and not eating

I'm not eatin', not blamin', I'm just sayin'

Go to bed with hunger pains while these other niggas caking, they too fake

No rappers rapping for years waiting 'round for that big break

Break a arm, break a bond before I go break the bank

Break a hundred, that's fifty-fifty

Long as [?] and Whitney's seen different cities, different titties

I bring no money with me, I'm on my grind man, no regrets when I die man

'Til we fly man, 'til we fly man, 'til we fly man

You gon' miss us when we fly man

[Hook - Joey Bada$$]

[Bridge - Maverick Sabre]
