I'm in Marty McFly mode, so tell em' that the future's back

Riding on hoverboards

Wiping out motherboards

Started spitting fire cause my motherfuckin lung is scorched

King Arthur when he swung his sword

A king author I ain't even use a pen in like a month or four

I had a hard time writing lyrics

Now I'm way over heads, science fiction

You can try and get it, my man the flyest with it

With a mind of finest interests for your finest interests

They say hard work pays off, well tell the Based God don't quit his day job Cause P.E's about to take off, with protons and electrons homie that's an A-bomb

Fuckin' ridiculous, finger to the president screamin' "fuck censorship! " If Obama got that president election then them P.E boys bout to make an intervention

Fuck what I once said, I want the blood shed

Cause now-a-days for respect you gotta pump lead

I guess Columbine was listenin' to Chaka Khan and pokemon wasn't gettin' rec ognized at Comic-Con

It's like we've been content with losin'

And half our students fallen victim to the institution

Jobs are scarce since the Scientific Revolution

And little kids are shootin Uzi's cause it's given to 'em

Little weapon, code name: Smith and Wesson

And you'll be quick to catch a bullet like an interception

If your man try and disrespect it, send a message and it's over in a mili se cond
