

Take Mine

Joey Dosik

I know this is a trying time
You cried until your tears have run dry
Your tears have run dry
So why not take mine

Running and you can't go on
Pretending when you've [?] your smile
You've lost your smile
So why not take mine
Woah

Take mine
Take mine
I'll give you anything you need
You don't have to beg and plead
To take mine
Take some of mine
I'll give you all you're asking me
Take my eyes so you can see

And I can listen to you honey
And if you ask, I can give my advice
Take some of mine
I'll shine my light
And in your darkest time

Take mine
Take mine
I'll give you anything you need
You don't have to beg and plead
To take mine
Take some of mine
When you find it hard to speak
Take my voice so you can sing
Take mine

I've been down that road before
Forgot what I was looking for
All I really needed was to trust someone more

You don't need to ask
Just take mine
Anybody else
Just take mine, whoa

All you really need is just someone to realize
All you really need is just a [?], oh
Take mine
Take mine

I'll give you anything you need
You don't have to beg and plead
To take mine
Take some of mine
Take my voice so you can sing
Take mine
